HUMAN TRAFFICKING and COMPREHENSIVE SERVICES

ASIAN ANTI TRAFFICKING COLLABORATIVE (AATC) and THE SAGE PROJECT, INC.

---

July 29, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

(San Francisco, California) On July 29th and July 30th, 2009, in an effort to increase anti-trafficking efforts in San Francisco, The Asian Anti-Trafficking Collaborative and The SAGE Project, Inc. are partnering to train direct service providers.

Events include, human trafficking from a legal perspective, comprehensive case management and case flow, case management and collaboration including challenges and models for success, and regional discussions.

Invited guest speakers will include Sgt. Arlin Vanderbilt (San Francisco Police Department), Steven Merrill (FBI), Jennifer Adelrete (ICE), Andrew Huang (Assistant U.S. Attorney's Office), and Francine Braae (The SAGE Project, Inc).

Participants include direct service providers from San Mateo, San Francisco, Alameda, and Contra Costa Counties where the goal is to build a more strategic anti-trafficking front in services provision for survivors of human trafficking in Northern California.

Event sponsors: ORRICK, Whole Foods, and the North Bay Task Force.
